Deadline for ads to be submitted:

We will be releasing several different versions of the online tournament booklet as the year advances so you can submit your ad until December 15, 2025, but the earlier the better.

All ads should be supplied as per the following specifications:

If having ad prepared by a graphic designer:

- High-res PDF file built to the exact size of the ad space purchased. No need for crop marks; no bleed.
- CMYK ads only; no Pantones. Pantones will be automatically converted to CMYK.
- If supplying design files, please note we can accept ads built in Adobe InDesign, Illustrator or Photoshop

If supplying ad yourself:

- You may supply the separate elements for your ad (text in a Word document, large jpeg or tiff logos and other images) and we can build it for you to ensure an optimal print quality. Please note that elements taken from the Internet are very low quality and will not reproduce nicely.
- If you wish for something specific, you may supply an example and we will ensure to recreate it as close as possible with the elements you supply us.

If submitted early enough, a PDF of the ad will be sent for your approval before printing the brochure.

* Any ads supplied in dimensions other than those specified above may be readjusted to fit the space.
